UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Criminal No. 4:10-CR-20166

Plaintiff,

HON. MARK A. GOLDSMITH
United States District Judge

v.

Offense(s):

Count One: 21 U.S.C. §846 & 841 (b)(1)(B)
Conspiracy to Distribute Cocaine

D-1 JERMAINE LOVE JACKSON,

Statutory Penalties:

Defendant.

Imprisonment - At least 10 years &
up to life

Supervised Release - At least 8 years
Fine - Up to $4,000,000

RULE 11 PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant and the government agree as follows:

1. GUILTY PLEA(S)

A. Count(s) of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to count one of the indictment, which charges defendant with conspiracy to distribute 500 grams or more of cocaine, in violation of 21 United States Code, Section 846.

B. Elements of Offense(s)

The elements of count one are :

(1) defendant and at least one other person conspired, or agreed, to commit the crimes of distribution and possession with the intent to distribute at least 500 grams of cocaine;

(2) defendant knowingly, intentionally, and voluntarily joined the conspiracy; and

(3) defendant knew, or reasonably foresaw, that the conspiracy involved the actual distribution or planned distribution of at least 500 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine, a Schedule II controlled substance.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The parties agree that the following facts are true, and are a sufficient basis for defendant's guilty plea:

On October 9, 2009, a package containing one kilogram of cocaine was interdicted at the FedEx airhub in Flint, Michigan. The cocaine was hidden in a hollowed out book. The package was addressed to Barb Johnson, 3513 Whitney Street, Flint, Michigan, which is in the Eastern District of Michigan. Officers assigned to the Flint Area Narcotics Group delivered the package to 3513 Whitney Street, where Mekel Johnson identified herself as Barb Johnson and accepted the package. Approximately fifteen minutes later, surveillance officers observed defendant, Jermaine Love Jackson, enter 3513 Whitney. Jackson left with the package which contained the cocaine approximately three minutes later.

Thereafter, officers in marked patrol vehicles attempted to conduct a traffic stop of the vehicle Jackson was driving. Jackson fled in the vehicle from the officers and, during his flight, discarded two packages from his vehicle. Officers recovered the packages and each contained approximately one kilogram of cocaine hidden within hollowed out books.

Subsequently, a search warrant was executed at defendant Jermaine Jackson's residence and officers located a third hollowed out book, consistent with the seized packages. Thus, three kilograms of cocaine are attributable to Jermaine Jackson.

On April 22, 2002, Jermaine Jackson was convicted of possession of cocaine in the Genesee County Circuit Court. Possession of cocaine is a drug felony within the meaning of 21 U.S.C. 841 (b)(1)(B).

2. SENTENCING GUIDELINES

A. Standard of Proof

The court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

The parties disagree only on the applicability of the following guideline(s):

3C1.2 Reckless Endangerment During Flight

The government recommends that the court determine that defendant's guideline range is 120 months, as set forth on the attached worksheets. Defendant also recommends that the court determine that his/her guideline range is 120 months, however, contests the application of this guideline section. The court is not bound by either party's recommendation concerning the guideline range, and defendant understands that he/she will not have a right to withdraw his/her guilty plea if the court does not follow his/her recommendation.

If the court finds: (a) that defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or, (b) that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his/her probation officer; committed a new crime; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his/her offense(s); or obstructed justice, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than is recommended by a party, then the higher guideline range becomes that party's recommended range. However, if the court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in either party's recommended range.

Based on the present circumstances, the U.S. Attorney recommends that defendant be granted a reduction of two levels for acceptance of responsibility. The U.S. Attorney may recommend against giving defendant credit for acceptance of responsibility if, after the guilty plea has been entered, the U.S. Attorney's office learns of information inconsistent with the adjustment. Additionally, the U.S. Attorney agrees that defendant has assisted the authorities, within the meaning of USSG §3E1.1(b), in the prosecution of defendant's own misconduct by timely notifying authorities of the intention to plead guilty, thereby permitting the government to avoid preparing for trial and permitting the government and the court to allocate their resources efficiently. The U.S. Attorney therefore moves that defendant be granted a third level reduction for acceptance of responsibility.

Neither party may take a position in this court contrary to any position of that party as stated above, except as necessary to the court's determination regarding defendant's criminal history; acceptance of responsibility, and obstruction of justice.

3. SENTENCE

The court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

Except as provided in the next sentence, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the midpoint of the sentencing guideline range as determined by paragraph 2B of this agreement. However, the court must impose a sentence of imprisonment on count one, the count of conviction, of at least ten years.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release follows the term of imprisonment. The court must impose a term of supervised release on count one of no less than eight (8) years and up to life. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above does not apply to any term of imprisonment that results from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment(s)

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100.

D. Fine

The court may impose a fine on each count of conviction in any amount up to $4,000,000.

E. Restitution

The court may order community restitution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663(c).

4. OTHER CHARGES

If the court accepts this agreement, the government will dismiss count two of the indictment. In addition, the government will not bring additional charges against defendant based on any of the conduct reflected in the attached worksheets.

5. EACH PARTY'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW FROM THIS AGREEMENT

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the court finds the correct guideline range to be less than that recommended by the government.

Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his/her guilty plea, if the court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by this agreement. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. If defendant decides not to withdraw his/her guilty plea pursuant to this provision, the sentence that the court imposes may be greater than that allowed by this agreement.

6. APPEAL WAIVER

If the sentence imposed does not exceed the maximum allowed by Part 3 of this agreement, defendant waives the right to appeal his/her conviction or sentence on any grounds. If the sentence imposed is within the guideline range determined by Paragraph 2B, the government agrees not to appeal the sentence but retains its right to appeal any sentence below that range.

Defendant understands that defendants generally have the right to attack their convictions and sentences by filing post-conviction motions, petitions, or independent civil actions. As part of this agreement, however, defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives that right and agrees not to contest his/her conviction or sentence in any post-conviction proceeding, including—but not limited to—any proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

7. CONSEQUENCES OF WITHDRAWAL OF GUILTY PLEA(S) OR VACATION OF CONVICTION(S)

If defendant is allowed to withdraw his/her guilty plea(s), or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, any charges dismissed pursuant to this agreement and additional charges which relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea(s) or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, may be filed against defendant within six months after the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing him/her to withdraw his/her guilty plea becomes final. Defendant waives his/her right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

8. PARTIES TO PLEA AGREEMENT

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

9. SCOPE OF PLEA AGREEMENT

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. Except as provided in the next paragraph, this agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

10. ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Defendant understands that a felony conviction makes it illegal under most circumstances for a person to possess or receive a firearm or ammunition that has been shipped in or affects commerce.

11. ACCEPTANCE OF AGREEMENT BY DEFENDANT

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 3:00 p.m. on November 23, 2010. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
